S. B. REGI
6629

S. 2, Special Branch,

April 16, 35.

V.L. Nogovikoff, applicant to carry arms.

With reference to the attached application of Vladimir Leonidovitch Nogovikoff to carry firearms, enquiries show that this individual is a Russian born in March 1918 at Buinsk, Simbirsk Province. His late father was an apothecary by occupation. In 1922 V.L. Nogovikoff arrived at Harbin from Russia together with his parents. He was educated at the Mixed Middle School and subsequently at Aksakovsky Middle School, Harbin. In 1923 he served for about 6 months with the Guard of the Lafa-Harbin Railway. During December 1933 he arrived at Shanghai from Harbin and soon afterwards obtained employment as a watchman in the Machine Shop & Warehouse of Andersen, Mayer & Co., No. 2 Tungliang Road, where he is still working. He resides with his mother at No. 115 MacGregor Road. Nothing detrimental is known by this office against the applicant.

Original on file in Arms Licensing Section.